ASK WHATEVER YOU WISH
AND IT WILL BE GIVEN TO YOU

What again are the conditions?

if you remain in me
and (if) My words remain in you.

How many times is the word remain repeated in this passage?

In order to claim this promise, why is it necessary for us to "remain in Jesus"?

In the allegory given, Jesus is the vine and we are the branches. As a branch must remain attached to the vine in order to function and bear fruit, we must remain in a bonded consistent relationship with Jesus, our Lord and vine if we are to bear fruit for the Father's glory.

This promise in the written Word cannot function in our lives apart from Jesus, the Living Word because Jesus is the written Word personified. It is His life in us that gives us the desire to pray for God's will to be performed according to the written word.

In order to claim this promise, why is it important for us to have the Written Word memorized and hidden in our hearts?

1. Although we do have evidence of His great works in our world and in the universe, apart from His written Word we have no knowledge of who God is, or His will for our lives. And apart from His Word we have no pure truth on which to rely. Scripture as He has given it to us is our lifeline to God. It is our text book, our love letter, our map for life here and beyond this world. As we memorize this precious Word He has given us, it becomes part of us, our thinking and our desires are drawn more and more toward His way of thinking and His perfect will as it is revealed in His Word.

2. God is the only One who can know how we should be praying. It is only as we have His pure truth, His literal Word in our hearts and in our minds that we can be assured that we are praying according to His will and thereby claim this promise. In other words, how can we know what God's will is, if we don't have a literal grasp as He has stated it in His Word.

THIS IS TO MY FATHER'S GLORY THAT YOU BEAR MUCH FRUIT
SHOWING YOURSELVES TO BE MY DISCIPLES

According to verse five, how do we bear much fruit?

This entire passage dwells on the branch remaining in the vine and bearing fruit as an illustration of us, as branches remaining in Jesus, the Vine. Then in addition as His Word lives in us, He gives us this additional promise that we might bear much fruit for His Father may be glorified.

(You may want to encourage discussion by introducing this thought: Could it be that without His Word living in us, we might bear "fruit", but that addition is given that we might bear "much fruit".)

Why did Jesus give us this awesome promise? (You may want to discuss these in detail as they pertain to our daily life and walk with the Lord.)

- _____ for personal convenience (or the convenience of others)?
- _____ to simplify our life (or that for others)?
- _____ for personal gain (for ourself or others)?
- _____ for personal interests (for ourself or others)?
- _____ that we bear fruit?
- _____ that others bear fruit?
- _____ that we bear much fruit?
- _____ that others bear much fruit?
- _____ that the Father will be glorified?

Additional Ideas for Discussion:

In a passage of Scripture focused on an allegory of the branch remaining in the vine and bearing fruit as is pertains to our continuous bonding to Jesus our Lord, what significance do you see in the fact that He adds the addition condition of His words remaining or living in us before volunteering the promise regarding answered prayer?

What conclusions can you draw from the Scriptures about Jesus and The Sword in Revelation 1:16, 2:12-16, and 19:11-16 compared with His command to us in Ephesians 6:17-18?
